桃園機場捷運線

STATION CODE A12 [1]	TRADITIONAL CHINESE NAME 機場第一航廈站 [1]	ADMINISTRATIVE CITY 桃園市 [1]	ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT 大園區 [1]
SEQUENCE (TAIPEI MAIN TO LAOJIE RIVER) 12 [2]	STRUCTURE Underground, one island platform, 2 tracks [4]	SERVICE PATTERN Both express (直達車) and commuter (普通車) [5]	EXITS 1 numbered exit at Terminal 1 parking lot 1, plus a direct connector to Terminal 1's B2 food court [3]

Airport Terminal 1 is the first of the line's two airport stations and one of the fixed express (直達車) stops, alongside A1, A3, A8 and A13, on top of the commuter (普通車) service that calls at every station. [5] TYMC [/rail/operators/tymc/] 's own station page states the address at basement level 1 and gives two access points: a numbered street exit into Terminal 1's parking lot 1, and a separate connector reaching the terminal's B2 food court directly. [3] A Taoyuan [/rail/thsr/stations/taoyuan/] tourism-portal page gives an express journey time from Taipei [/rail/thsr/stations/taipei/] Main Station of 35 minutes. [7]

This station and Terminal 2 sit within the airport's underground civil package (CU02/CU02A), an approximately 5,520 m stretch built by cut-and-cover and shield-tunnelling methods beneath runway and control-tower-adjacent ground; a Railway Bureau technical paper on the airport crossing places the East Taxiway 48 m from this section and records the red-soil and gravel-bearing strata used in the crossing's monitoring design. [6] TYMC's own station page does not itself describe an in-town check-in or baggage-drop facility at this station specifically; that service, where it exists at this network's stations, is documented separately on the line's own page rather than assumed here.

TYMC's own station page lists an inquiry desk in the main hall, drinking water in the non-paid area near the station's public artwork, restrooms in the paid area, and 16 large lockers (45×60×90 cm, NT$50 per three hours); it records no dedicated station parking, with the station instead sharing Terminal 1's own P1/P2 lots. [3] TYMC's own current public-art page names one work here, "Transit — Heart's Flight Path" (過境—心航線) by artist 林俊廷, without a stated year or medium. [8]
